NOTICE

Strict Instructions Regarding Crossing of Highway in Front of the College Gate

Despite repeated reminders and instructions, it has been observed that several students continue to cross the highway directly in front of the college gate.

This practice is extremely dangerous and poses a serious risk to your own life as well as the safety of motorists and other road users. Students are strictly advised not to cross the highway at this location under any circumstances.

For your safety, students must use the designated/safe crossing point located approximately 100 metres away from the college gate, where police personnel are deployed to facilitate safe crossing.

Strict Compliance:

With immediate effect, any student found crossing the highway in front of the college gate will be treated as violating the college safety instructions. The security personnel at the college gate will not permit such students to enter the college premises.

This measure is being implemented purely in the interest of student safety and the safety of the general public.

All students are therefore instructed to strictly follow the above direction and cooperate with the college administration.

Your safety is your responsibility. Please do not take unnecessary risks.

Sincerely,

Principal
